Spalding.

The death angel came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. S. Spalding Thursday and called their daughter, Miss Bernadine, from her work on earth to her eternal home. Deceased spent about 19 years on earth. She was a pleasant, winsome, intelligent christian young lady, loved by all who knew her. She leaves a heart broken father, mother, four brothers, Aubrey B. of this city, Howard, of Indian Creek, Wilford and Gerald at home and one sister, Miss Margaret, at home, and a large circle of friends to mourn her untimely death. Deceased was born at Indian Creek, May 11, 1895.

She was a faithful and devoted member of St. Stephens church at Indian Creek. Funeral services were conducted at St. Stephens church Friday afternoon by Rev. Fr. Fox. A noble christian young lady has finished her work on earth and gone to be with that throng which worship around the throne of God.

Same Here.

Judge Wallace claimed at Columbia that the majority of the country Democratic newspapers were supporting him in his candidacy for the United States Senate. Judging by the large number of papers that are on our exchange list, we would say that the Judge is mistaken in this. All of the papers that we see are treating the Judge kindly, but the number that are espousing his cause are very few, so far as we have seen them.—Fulton Sun.

Odd Fellows Installation.

The officers of Monroe City Lodge No. 268 I. O. O. F. are to be installed this, Thursday, evening. All Odd Fellows are urged to be present.

Will Rebuild.

The Monroe Coal & Grain Co.'s loss on the elevator which was burned Monday night of last week has been adjusted and work has commenced tearing down the old building. A gasoline can which the evening before the fire was just back of the engine house with about 3 or 4 gallons of gasoline was found in the basement empty. The Company is going to rebuild.

Mrs. Allen Umstattd and baby returned to St. Louis Friday after spending two months with the homefolks.

Carpenter.

Charles William, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Carpenter, died at their home Saturday evening. While the baby had not been well he was not considered in a critical condition and his death was a sad shock to parents and friends. Though here but eight short weeks he leaves a vacancy that can never be filled.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday afternoon by Rev. W. Garnet Alcorn, assisted by Revs. Gott and Hubbard. Interment in St. Jude's cemetery.

Estes

Mrs. Margaret S. Estes, wife of John Estes, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Webster northwest of this city, July 6, 1914. She had not been in good health for about a year. She came here from Monmouth, Ill., about four weeks ago and from that time has not been able to leave her bed. She leaves a husband and five children and all were present when she passed away. The children were Mrs. Samuel Webster, of this city, Mrs. Ida Guseman, of Loraine, Ill., Mrs. Edw. Holmes, of Monmouth, Ill., Quin Estes, of Monmouth, Ill., and Frank Estes, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. The remains were taken to Quincy Wednesday morning and interred in Green Mount Cemetery.

Allen.

Henry Allen died at his home in the west part of town about eleven o'clock July 6, 1914 after a long illness. He was born in Racine, Wis., Jan. 10, 1846. He leaves a widow and seven children, five sons and two daughters and sixteen grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted at the home at one o'clock by Rev. J. H. Hubbard and the remains were taken to Hunnewell for burial.

Another Fire.

Saturday afternoon A. L. Nash's barn in some way caught fire and was burned together with a shed, corn crib, feed, implements, survey, etc. Loss about $1200. Insurance carried $450. The fire department worked faithfully and saved other property.

Miss Lois Trower, of LaPlata left Tuesday for a visit in Shelby. She has been a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cearfoss the past two weeks.

Entertained.

Wednesday afternoon of last week Miss Edna Vaughn entertained twenty friends in honor of her friend, Miss Mabel Turpin, of Nevada. The young ladies brought their needle work and during the afternoon Mrs. J. R. Henderson and Miss Ruth Wilson gave readings which were very much enjoyed. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Thursday afternoon Miss Bertha Jaeger entertained in honor of Misses Bertha and Amelie Goetze of Moberly. Five hundred was played and six tables were run. Miss Amelie Goetze, a very accomplished pianist rendered several selections and Misses Buell and Jaeger sang. Ices and cakes were served.

Thursday evening a number of young people took a hay ride out to the home of Miss Vivian Proctor. They took lunch and had a moon light picnic on the lawn. A very happy time was reported.

Friday afternoon Mrs. C. A. McClintic entertained at her home in honor of Miss Lois Carr of Hunnewell and Misses Bertha and Amelie Goetze of Moberly. Five hundred was the entertainment of the afternoon. Five tables were run. Delightful refreshments were served.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Jamie Hanly entertained in honor of her friend, Mrs. Fay Gipson of Trenton. Twenty young ladies were present. They were invited to bring their fancy work and a very pleasant social afternoon was spent. Mrs. Hanly served delicious ices and cakes.

Saturday was Miss Jessie Shank's birthday and the members of her Sunday School class with their teacher, Miss Libbie Hickman celebrated her birthday at the same time they celebrated Independence day. They took a lunch and with the great platters of fried chicken and large freezer of ice cream prepared by Mrs. Shank, had a feast. Miss Jessie had not been notified of their coming but gave them a hearty welcome. They had a jolly good time and voted it one of the best celebrations they ever had.

Miss Ruth Wilson invited a few friends to meet her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Jamison, of New London yesterday afternoon. Five hundred was the entertainment and three tables were run. Miss Wilson is an ideal hostess and a very delightful afternoon was spent.

County Candidates.

The county candidates start on their speaking tour July 18. The first place being at Paris and close at Florida picnic Aug. 3. They are to be in Monroe at 7:30 p. m. Monday, July 27. At 1 p. m. of same day they will speak at Indian Creek.

Elsewhere you will find the official statement of each of Monroe's excellent banking institutions: Monroe City Bank, Farmers & Merchants Bank and Citizens Bank. All are under safe, conservative able management; deserve and have the confidence of the public.

Mrs. C. D. Gipson of Trenton, is the guest of Mrs. Jamie Hanly. Mrs. Gipson was formerly Miss Fay Pettit.
